Day 1- August 7, 2009 (continued)

Fan Trips Travel has received special permission from the Quileute Tribal Council to partner with them in creating this special Twilight adventure.

Day 2 - August 8, 2009

La Push Beach – Hoh Rainforest – Quileute Salmon Bake

After breakfast this morning, grab your tennis shoes and a raincoat as we'll be heading to the Hoh Rainforest. Mild winters, cool summers and up to 12 feet of annual precipitation produce the giant conifers that dominate this rain forest, one of the most spectacular examples of temperate rain forest in the world. This easy trail leads us to the Hall of Mosses, the most atmospheric location in the rainforest where any vampire would feel right at home.

Back at the Quileute Oceanside Resort we'll break up into smaller groups for an exploration of First Beach with our Quileute guides. Enjoy an easy walk along unspoiled Pacific beaches to ancient national parklands.

Late afternoon is a time to relax at the resort or gather with friends. Other activities you can enjoy in your free time include kayaking, biking, fishing, surfing and whale watching.

We've planned a special dinner tonight – a traditional Salmon Bake just like Jacob, Billy, Sam and all their friends would share with their families and friends. This promises to be an evening to remember.

Day 3 - August 9, 2009

Forks – Quileute Bonfire and Stories

Today is Forks day! We'll head off after breakfast to Forks, WA where Stephenie Meyer's story takes place. This small and charming town was chosen as the Cullen's home as it receives the most rainfall of any city in the United States. You'll enjoy private guided tours of Forks locations which are reminiscent of fictional sites mentioned in the Twilight Series and have plenty of time to explore on your own. Grab those photos of the town sign, enjoy lunch on Main Street, shop for Twilight merchandise at the Outfitters and other stores in town. Have fun!

Day 5 - August 11, 2009 (continued)

Then get ready for a lovely afternoon out in the Columbia River Gorge. We have organized a fantastic day of easy walking into the Gorge and visiting film locations with a guide who assisted with pre-shoot organizing of the Twilight movie. While walking in "Edward's footsteps", our guide will share stories of the difficult conditions the crew had to undergo when filming in ice, snow and rain! The Columbia Gorge is a spectacular river canyon 85 miles long and up to 4,000 feet deep. This wild and beautiful place has also served as a human corridor for tens of thousands of years, and was visited by Lewis and Clark and traversed by thousands of Oregon Trail pioneers. How fortunate we are that Summit Entertainment chose to film in this breathtaking location!

Spend the day seeing the trees, the cliffs, and the water from Edward's eyes. Don't forget to bring your cameras for some of the most amazing photos you'll ever take! After crossing the river back to the Oregon side, we'll have a rest at the cozy Multnomah Falls Lodge built in 1925. Plummeting 620 feet from its origins on Larch Mountain, Multnomah Falls, another Twilight film location on your tour, is the second highest year-round waterfall in the nation. Enjoy a short walk with a naturalist who assisted with pre-shoot organizing of the movie.

Enjoy dinner on your own in beautiful downtown Portland.

After dinner, snuggle down in the fireplace room while award-winning Native American storyteller, Antoinette Botsford, weaves glorious tales of wolf children, engages us in interactive activities and creates a truly magical evening for all of us Twilight fans! A northwest native with family ties to indigenous North American and Celtic cultures, Antoinette Botsford delights in stories that stretch our way of seeing things. Actress, teacher, and journalist, and for the last twenty years as a storyteller, she reaches into her own life journeys to spin tales of "traditional and true" that will expand your sense of reality and possibility. Besides sharing some of her juicy stock of stories, she will lead a special hands-on project that will help you always to remember Twilight and its imprint in your own life.

Accommodations : Multnomah Hotel

Meals Included : Breakfast, Lunch, Hotel Reception

Day 6 - August 12, 2009

St. Helens – Prom Party

Enjoy a hearty breakfast before our excursion to St. Helens, Oregon, an inviting small town near the riverfront where Summit Entertainment chose to film a number of scenes for Twilight. The Olde Towne portion of St. Helens features a Nationally Registered Historic District which includes residences and civic buildings dating back nearly a century.

After a guided walking tour of downtown St Helens and free time for photos and shopping, another exclusive opportunity awaits. We have very special permission to visit the privately owned location used as the "Bloated Toad" - the restaurant in the movie where Edward and Bella have their first heart-felt conversation. During this extraordinary visit you will have a unique opportunity to hear a film location scout describe just how film locations are chosen. A fascinating discussion you don't want to miss!

We'll also be enjoying lunch today at the "Bloated Toad". Feel free to chat with the owner and get a first-person perspective of what it is like to have your property transformed for Hollywood.

The afternoon is yours to get ready for the Prom Party at the View Point Inn!

Relive the magic and romance of Prom Night at our special Prom Party at the romantic View Point Inn, where Bella and Edward shared a few moments on the verandah after the prom.

The View Point Inn will be recreating the evening just as it was for Edward and Bella - using the decorations used in the film. Their renowned chef will be prepare an amazing meal for you. Plus, there will be plenty of music and dancing under the stars. Relax, walk about the property and take plenty of photos and enjoy!
